Celebration of Thanksgiving

Many people trace the origins of the modern Thanksgiving Day to the harvest celebration that the pilgrims held in Plymouth, Massachusetts in 1621. However, their first true thanksgiving was in 1623, when they gave thanks for rain that ended a severe drought. In the following years, these early thanksgivings took the form of a special church service, rather than a feast of food. In the second half of the 1600s, thanksgiving celebrations after the harvest became more common and started to become annual events. However, it was celebrated on different days in different communities and in some villages, there were more than one thanksgiving remembrance each year.

George Washington, our first president of the United States, proclaimed the first national Thanksgiving Day in 1789. Later, President Abraham Lincoln declared the last Thursday in November as a National Day of Thanksgiving. It was not until 1941 that Congress finally made Thanksgiving Day an official national holiday.

This year while enjoying good food and fellowship, let us follow the tradition of our ancestors and take time to pause and render thanksgiving for our many blessings, and to pray for peace.

Lord God, Creator and source of goodness and love, look kindly upon us and receive our heartfelt gratitude at this special time. We thank You for all the graces and blessings You have so graciously bestowed upon us. We thank You for our faith and religious heritage; food and shelter; leisure and work; our country and those who serve to protect it; our family, friends, and neighbors both near and far. Lord, in Your infinite generosity, please grant us continued graces and enable us to generously assist those who are in need in our communities and around the world. We ask our prayer in the name of Jesus, Your Son, and in the power of Your Holy Spirit. Amen.

Wishing everyone an abundance of Thanksgiving Blessings!

Prayer for a Peaceful Death

O Lord, support us all the day long, until the shadows lengthen, and the evening comes, and the busy world is hushed, and the fever of life is over, and our work is done. Then, Lord, in Your mercy, grant us a safe lodging, a holy rest, and peace at last.
